

BIOGRAPHY of ALAIN MAILLARD

co-AUTHOR

Born in 1960, Alain Maillard is the son of a diplomat and spent his childhood in the USA, Japan and other countries in Europe. He first studied management and then history and international politics. He worked as a journalist in Switzerland for newspapers and magazines (24 Heures, L'Illustré, L'Hebdo) and for Radio Suisse Romande. Since 2003, he has been presenting daily programmes such as Recto Verso, Médialogues, La Ligne de Cœur, on La Première (public radio station similar to France Inter).

Publications

Alain Maillard is co-author of five books:

1999. « Faux réfugiés? La politique suisse de dissuasion d'asile »
with Christophe Tafelmacher, Editions d'En Bas

1999. « Les damnés du troisième cercle, les Kosovars en Suisse »
with Ueli Leuenberger, Editions Metropolis

2002. « Nous voulons une autre Suisse »
with Fernand Cuche et Patrice Mugny, Editions de L'Aire

2002. « Gangsterino, vie et destin d'Angelo Donadoni »
with Denise Gilliard, Editions Factual

2011. « Médiums, d'un monde à l'autre »
with Denise Gilliard, Editions Favre